

The opinions expressed in the studies are those of the consultant and do not necessarily represent the position of the Commission.

QUAVADIS

Quality and Use Aspects of Vehicle Adaptations for DISabled

Project details
Domain	Fitness to drive
Duration	from 01/01/2001 until 31/01/2004
Website
Other sources	 Final report (365 kB)

Quavadis is a pan-european initiative to improve the Quality and Use Aspects of Vehicle Adaptations for DISabled.

Objectives.

The overall objectives of Quavadis are:

- to establish statistics on the use of codes and the disabled drivers population in Europe to establish statistics on the use of codes and the disabled drivers population in Europe
- to stimulate knowledge exchange in the field of physically disabled drivers and their need for car-adaptations to stimulate knowledge exchange in the field of physically disabled drivers and their need for car-adaptations
- and to draw a European quality mark for car-adaptations that are suitable to assist and/or compensate for the drivers disability according to the restrictive conditions (codes) on the driving licence. and to draw a European quality mark for car-adaptations that are suitable to assist and/or compensate for the drivers disability according to the restrictive conditions (codes) on the driving licence.

Coordinator
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Elderly and Disabled Project Consultancy (NL)

Partners

- CBR - Centraal Bureau Rijvaardigheidsbewijzen (NL)
- Fiat research centre (IT)
- Belgian Road Safety Institute (BE)
- MAVIS - Mobility Advice and Vehicle Information Service \(DfT\) (UK)
- Motability - Car scheme for disabled people (UK)
- TNO automotive - Organisation for Applied Scientific Research (NL)
- TÜV Süd (DE)